

Research Notes – Federally Recognized Tribal Entity

Official name:

Does the group have their own website? If so, what is the URL?

If they do have a website, what kind of information does it include?

How does this group refer to themselves? Is it different from their “official” name?

What is the traditional language of this group?

Where is the group located today? (make sure you can roughly place their location on a map)

Where did this group live in the past? Is it different from today?

List three events, people, or other facts about their history:

1.

2.

3.